Need to talk to someone?

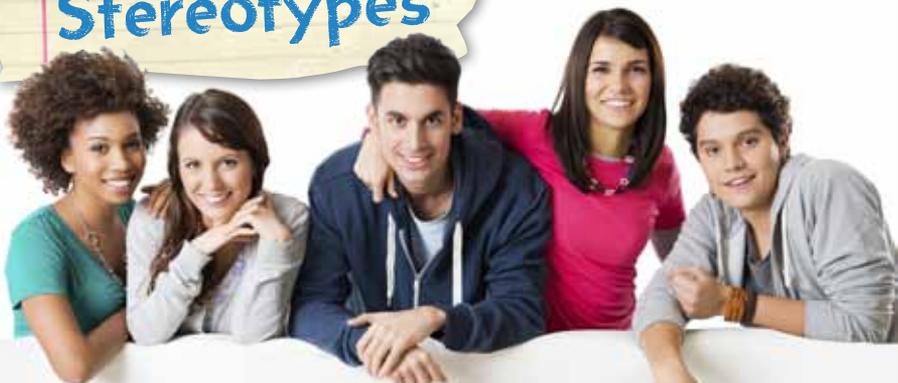

Sometimes it can feel like you are trapped in a situation and there is no way out. Remember no situation is so hopeless that there is no way out. Tell a safe adult who can help you. It is okay to talk about it.

If you want to talk to someone about yourself or a friend and do not want to give out your name, call Kids Help Phone @ 1-800-668-6868.

If you have been negatively impacted by a sexual video or picture that is online, visit NeedHelpNow.ca for more information.

If you are being threatened, intimidated or blackmailed, it is important to immediately involve a safe adult in your life, contact police or report to Cybertip.ca.

Stereotypes

What is a Stereotype?

A stereotype is an oversimplified idea of a type of person or group. Believing that all people or things with a particular characteristic are the same is a stereotype. Most people, whether they are aware of it or not, stereotype individuals or groups of people. An example of a stereotype is “guys don’t cry.”

Did You Know?

Our experiences, opinions and feelings shape how we think about people and how we treat them. Read the Reality Check below to see what you think and how you feel about stereotypes, labels, media messages and sexual violence.

True or False?

If a girl kisses a boy at a party – that could ruin her reputation, but the boy may become more popular.

True False

There are double standards with males and females. For example, if a girl sends a sexual photo of herself she is labelled a slut. If a guy does it, it’s funny.

True False

Reality Check: Do you think the following stereotypes exist?

- Guys are not sensitive
- Guys are stronger than girls
- Girls are weak
- Girls are emotional
- Girls are flirts
- Guys are users
- Girls are drama queens

“Stereotypes can shape our thinking about people and situations, rather than recognize all people as unique individuals.”

All males...NOT!

- ♂ aggressive
- ♂ independent
- ♂ dominant
- ♂ athletic
- ♂ tough
- ♂ not talkative
- ♂ rarely cry
- ♂ cruel
- ♂ blunt
- ♂ not nurturing
- ♂ players
- ♂ like to be alone
- ♂ like the colour blue

All females...NOT!

- ♀ gentle
- ♀ nice
- ♀ passive
- ♀ easily influenced
- ♀ easily hurt
- ♀ talkative
- ♀ kind
- ♀ nurturing
- ♀ dependent
- ♀ sensitive
- ♀ cry easily
- ♀ easily led by others
- ♀ need a partner
- ♀ can't be alone
- ♀ like the colour pink

THINKING THAT ALL MALES BEHAVE THE SAME WAY AND ALL FEMALES BEHAVE THE SAME WAY = STEREOTYPES

Did You Know?

How we THINK influences how we ACT.

Did You Know?

- * Crying is a healthy way to relieve stress. BOTH males and females cry.
- * Some guys are aggressive and some girls are aggressive. Guys and girls are also sensitive, gentle, assertive, passive and usually a combination of all depending on the situation.
- * All people have the right to be treated with respect and dignity.

REALITY:

Each person is an individual, with different strengths and experiences. Everyone is unique and has special qualities!

Who influences what teens think about relationships?

FAMILY

MEDIA

Attitudes and beliefs are also influenced by individual experiences, both positive and negative.

Media Messages – Under Pressure!

Youth are constantly bombarded with media messages that create unrealistic and unhealthy standards about what a person 'should' be.

What's the message?

Males are rough and aggressive.

Relationships are about status not connection.

PERFECTION.

Females are sexual objects.

Pressures on each gender are influenced by the Internet, music videos, music, movies, video games, magazines, advertising, and pop culture:

Girls

- SMART
- POPULAR
- SKINNY
- IN-STYLE
- PRETTY
- FIT
- ACCEPTED
- FRIENDLY and OUTGOING
- HAPPY
- SENSITIVE

Boys

- TOUGH
- BRAVE
- COOL
- UNEMOTIONAL
- POPULAR
- DIRECT
- POWERFUL
- PHYSICALLY STRONG
- COCKY
- ATHLETIC

DON'T BUY INTO HARMFUL STEREOTYPICAL MESSAGES.
THINK FOR YOURSELF!

Pornography Messages: Positive or Negative?

Pornography is widely available online. It is normal for youth to be sexually curious, but using pornography to learn about sex can be harmful. Pornography does not portray realistic body images or accurately represent relationships, sex or sexuality.

The messages in pornography are often degrading, humiliating, and not realistic.

MOST PORNOGRAPHY
OBJECTIFIES WOMEN
AS SEXUAL OBJECTS TO BE USED BY MEN

Why can pornography be harmful for teens?

- * Pornography is not reality
- * Pornography makes sexual violence seem okay
- * Pornography isn't about healthy relationships
- * Pornography reinforces gender stereotypes

Stinkin' Thinkin': Harmful Gender Messages

- Guys call the shots
- Girls are meant to be used for a sexual purpose
- Violence against women is okay - pain is not a big deal
- Guys do not need an emotional connection in a relationship
- Being aggressive gets you what you want - persistence works
- No means yes

HERE'S THE DEAL...

Pornography is not reality! It can create confusing expectations, attitudes and beliefs about what to expect in a healthy sexual interaction. Copying this behaviour can be harmful.

OBJECTIFY = SEEING AN INDIVIDUAL AS A THING TO BE USED — NOT A PERSON.

Dating Relationships

What is a Healthy Dating Relationship?

- * Dating relationships are about connection.
- * Emotional closeness is an important part of relationships.
- * In order to be close to someone, the following factors are needed:
 - Kindness
 - Trust
 - Respect
 - Equality
 - Communication
 - Acceptance
 - Compromise
 - Chemistry

Physical Closeness in Dating Relationships

- * Physical affection is part of a dating relationship. It's important to regularly discuss what both people are okay and not okay with. Changes in the type of physical contact you want or are comfortable with may change day to day.
- * Both people should be honest about what they are comfortable with. For example, maybe you like holding hands, hugging, and kissing but are not ready for anything more.
- * A person has a right to their own boundaries and limits, and those should be respected.
- * People who care about each other respect one another's decisions.

Signs of a healthy relationship include:

- * Having more good times in the relationship than bad
- * Having a life outside the relationship, with your own friends and activities
- * Being prepared to compromise at times
- * Dealing with conflicts by talking honestly
- * Feeling comfortable and able to be yourself
- * Feeling like your partner supports you

Signs of an unhealthy relationship include:

- * Focusing all your energy on your partner
- * Dropping friends and family or activities you enjoy for your partner
- * Feeling pressured or controlled a lot
- * Having more bad times in the relationship than good
- * Feeling sad or scared when with your partner

Did You Know?

Sometimes people say that they (or 'everyone') are doing sexual 'stuff' more than they actually are – some may say this to try to pressure a person and challenge her/his boundaries.

HERE'S THE DEAL...

Don't buy it! It is controlling and disrespectful! Only do what you feel is right for you.

Controlling behaviour

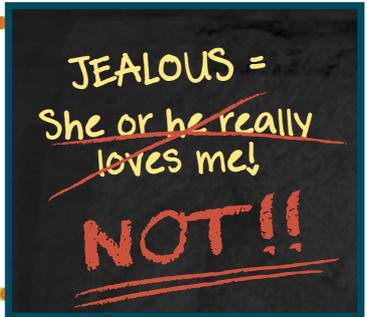

- ! Constantly texting or sending instant messages wanting to know where a person is
- ! Pressuring a person to get serious very quickly
- ! Pressuring a person to do what the other person wants all the time
- ! Acting very jealous or bossy
- ! Pressuring a person to do things s/he isn't comfortable with (breaking rules, engaging in sexual acts, sending sexual pictures, etc.)
- ! Threatening to hurt a person or themselves if s/he breaks up with her/him
- ! Mistreating a person and then blaming her/him for the problems in the relationship
- ! Yelling at and intimidating a person
- ! Isolating a person – doesn't want her/him to be close to anyone else (e.g. friends, family)

Violence is NEVER okay...
even if a person says:

- * sorry after and feels badly
- * s/he will never do it again
- * s/he cares about you

Should I stay out of it?

My friend Ashley has been dating her boyfriend for two months. We've been best friends since grade three. Ashley is hilarious and really outgoing. Since she started dating Jake, she has totally changed. I never see her anymore and when I do Jake is texting her the entire time because he is mad that she isn't with him. It is so annoying! The other day when we were at school Jake went way too far. We were in the cafeteria talking and Jake pushed through us, grabbed Ashley's arm and said "let's go now!", and pulled her out of the cafeteria. She left with him and didn't say a word. I tried to talk to her about it, but she says he was just having a bad day. She says that he apologized and they made up. I don't know what to do because I don't think what Jake is doing is okay, but Ashley doesn't see it. She loves him! Should I (Nicole) stay out of it?

1. Why might it be difficult for Nicole to help Ashley?

2. List the behaviours that are unhealthy in the relationship between Ashley and Jake.

3. What should Nicole do?

4. What might happen if Nicole doesn't do or say anything?

Sexting

There are many reasons why guys and girls may share explicit photos online:

These are some of the reasons why girls said they sent sexual pictures of themselves:

- * To get closer and build a relationship with the other person
- * To be intimate and show they love the person
- * Because they trust the person
- * To be liked
- * For the attention

Sending sexual pics online...REALLY?!

Hmmm... what do YOU think?

These are some of the reasons why guys said they got girls to send them pictures:

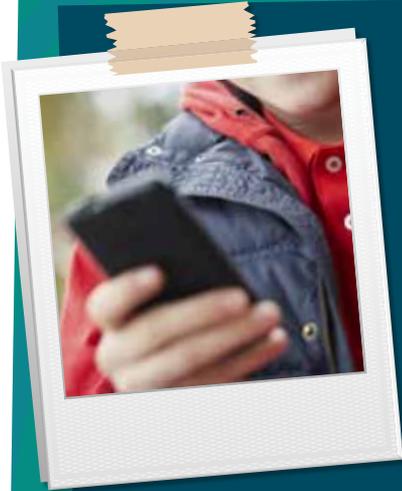

- * To increase their popularity
- * To show how powerful they are ("I can get a girl to do anything")
- * To use as their 'trophies'

IF YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW HAS SEXUAL PICTURES CIRCULATING ONLINE AND IT IS CAUSING PROBLEMS FOR YOU OR YOUR FRIEND, VISIT NEEDHELPNOW.CA FOR INFORMATION OR HELP.

"Young Women and Men's Perspectives on Self/Peer Exploitation, Adult Exploitation and Cyber Bullying: Workshop Report", March 10, 2014, The Students Commission of Canada.

These are some of the reasons why youth forward pictures that other people have shared with them:

- * For a joke
- * To gain popularity
- * To fit in because their friends are doing it
- * So as many people as possible will see it
- * For revenge, to ruin the reputation of an ex-boyfriend's new girlfriend or to get back at a girl to ruin her reputation
- * To humiliate the person
- * To gain status and acceptance from others

Risks of sending a sexual picture:

- * You lose control of what happens to the image/video
- * Your image/video can be easily shared on many sites
- * You may be ridiculed and/or harassed by peers
- * You may feel humiliated, anxious and/or depressed
- * You may feel all alone

IT IS A BIG DEAL TO SEND SEXUAL IMAGES TO OTHERS:
IT MAY BE ILLEGAL!

Myth or Fact?

MYTH

Most sexual assaults happen by someone the person doesn't know.

FACT

82% of all sexual offences against children and youth occur by someone they know.*

MYTH

Sexual assaults are usually violent and physical force is used.

FACT

In many cases, violence and physical force are not used. There is no physical evidence of the assault. This doesn't mean a sexual assault didn't occur.

What is sexual assault?

Sexual assault is sexual contact without consent.

* (Statistics Canada, Canadian Centre for Justice Statistics "Police-reported sexual offences against children and youth in Canada, 2012")

MYTH

If a girl drinks too much at a party, then whatever happens to her is her own fault.

FACT

Nobody brings sexual assault on to themselves. The person who commits the assault is the one responsible. If someone is intoxicated, they cannot legally consent to sexual activity. Engaging in sexual activity with a person who does not or cannot consent is considered sexual assault.

MYTH

If a guy is persistent and keeps trying sexual stuff with a person even after they have had a few drinks then the guy obviously really likes them.

FACT

If someone does not consent, it is because they aren't comfortable or ready. Persistence is controlling behaviour. Both parties must consent freely and willingly to engage in sexual activity because they want to without use of pressure, threats, imbalance of power, substance use, etc.

MYTH

Teenage guys don't get sexually assaulted. They can protect themselves.

FACT

Teenage guys can be sexually assaulted. It has nothing to do with how physically strong they are. Sexual assault is any unwanted sexual contact regardless of gender.

MYTH

If a girl sends a sexual picture of herself to a guy, then he has the right to send it to anyone else.

FACT

If someone shares a sexual image of themselves with someone and that person distributes that image to others, it is unethical and illegal.

MYTH

A 14-year-old can date a 20-year-old, as long as the 14-year-old is okay with it.

FACT

There are laws about the age at which a person is able to consent to sexual activity. The age of protection (also called the age of consent) is generally 16-years-old. There are limited “close-in-age” exceptions where a 14-year-old can consent, but the age difference between 14 and 20 is too great for the exceptions to apply. See page 15 and 16 for more detailed information on the age of consent.

MYTH

If person is drunk or high when they sexually assault another person, they won't be charged.

FACT

A person is responsible for his/her actions at all times. Being intoxicated does not excuse criminal behaviour.

MYTH

Most sexual assaults occur in isolated places like back lanes.

FACT

The vast majority of police-reported sexual assaults take place in a public place or home. Sexual assaults can happen in a home, at a party when others are around, cars, public places, etc.*

Did You Know?

- * Children and youth account for OVER HALF of all victims of sexual assault reported to police.
- * Youth 12 to 17 report the HIGHEST RATES of sexual violence.
- * Sexual assaults are the MOST UNDERREPORTED crimes in Canada.
- * Overall, 82% of sexual assaults are committed by someone KNOWN TO THE VICTIM.
- * FEMALES are victims of 80% of sexual assaults.

* (Statistics Canada, Canadian Centre for Justice Statistics “Police-reported sexual offences against children and youth in Canada, 2012”)

Sexual Consent

What is Sexual Consent?

Sexual consent means giving permission, through words or actions, to sexual activity. This can range from sexual touching such as kissing to sexual intercourse. Remember that just because someone doesn't say "No" to something doesn't mean they have said "Yes". Also, consenting to one thing does not mean the person has consented to everything. It also doesn't mean they consent to it happening again in the future.

What is the age of Sexual Consent?

The age of sexual consent is in place to protect young people from being sexually exploited or abused by adults. It refers to the age that a person can legally consent to sexual activity. The age of consent is generally 16-years-old. The table below sets out the age at which consent can be given, based on the age of the child and the other person:

Child's Age	Can Child Consent?
UNDER 12 YEARS OLD	NO ; no person under 12 is able to consent to sexual activity.
12 OR 13 YEARS OLD	SOMETIMES ; only if the age difference is LESS THAN 2 years.*
14 OR 15 YEARS OLD	SOMETIMES ; only if the age difference is LESS THAN 5 years.*
16 YEARS OLD OR OLDER	SOMETIMES; BUT there are exceptions. See next page.
18 YEARS OLD	YES.

* The close-in-age exception will not apply where the other person is in a position of trust or authority over the child, the child is dependent on the other person, or the relationship is exploitative – just like the exceptions to consent for persons 16 years and over. See next page.

Exceptions to Consent – Persons 16 years and over

At age 16, you are able to consent to sexual activity, but not if:

- ➔ the other person is in a position of trust or authority over you (e.g. teacher, coach, relative, priest/pastor/minister, employer);
- ➔ the relationship is exploitative (e.g. prostitution, where the age difference is significant, where the older person has significant influence or control over the younger person, where the relationship began at a time when the older person was in a position of trust or authority); or
- ➔ you are dependent on the other person in some way (e.g. for food, shelter, etc.)

IN THE ABOVE SITUATIONS, YOU MUST BE 18-YEARS-OLD TO CONSENT.

Quiz: True or False

1. A person under the age of 12 can consent to sexual activity depending on who it is with. True False
2. If you are 13 years old, you can consent to sexual activity with a person who is 16. True False
3. Once you turn 16, you can always consent to sexual activity. True False
4. If you are 14, the oldest person you can consent to having sexual activity with is a 20-year-old. True False
5. If you are 16, you can consent to sexual activity with your boss at work. True False

Getting and Giving Consent

Before engaging in any sexual contact, each person participating must take steps to make sure there is consent. Figuring that out involves three things:

- 1 Each person must be OLD ENOUGH to consent to the activity with the other person.

It doesn't matter if the younger person WANTS to consent, what matters is if s/he legally CAN consent – see page 15 of this booklet on “Age of Consent”. Note that because of the exceptions to consent (see page 16), even if a 16-year-old WANTS to consent to sexual activity with her/his 24-year-old coach, the 16-year-old CANNOT consent and the 24-year-old could be charged with an offence.

HAVING SEX WITH SOMEONE WHO IS NOT OLD ENOUGH TO CONSENT IS A CRIME.

- 2 Each person has to let the other person know that s/he wants the sexual contact.

This can be through words (like “yes”) or actions (e.g. nodding yes, willingly responding to the activity). This consent should be given BEFORE any sexual contact and consent can be withdrawn at ANY TIME. Be careful not to assume anything - just because someone isn't saying “no,” that does not mean they are saying “yes”!

IF YOU AREN'T SURE IF SOMEONE IS SAYING YES, CHECK IT OUT! IT IS UP TO YOU TO TAKE STEPS TO MAKE SURE THE OTHER PERSON IS OKAY WITH WHAT IS HAPPENING.

- 3 Each person has to be CAPABLE of consenting at the time and not have been forced or manipulated into it.

A person who is drunk or on drugs CANNOT give consent. A person can be charged with sexual assault if s/he takes advantage of someone who is drunk or high.

SEXUAL ACTIVITY WITHOUT CONSENT IS CALLED SEXUAL ASSAULT.

Getting a person to participate in sexual activity through...

- * physical force
- * manipulation
- * guilt
- * deception
- * persistence
- * intimidation
- * bullying
- * intoxication
- * threats

...is NOT considered consent

Remember -
A person cannot consent if:

- * S/he is drunk or high
- * S/he is passed out
- * S/he is sleeping

Did You Know?

Sexual contact should be enjoyed by both people and not done just to make one person happy.

Sexual Assault Stinkin' Thinkin' - Not TRUE!

- If she is drunk or high and is flirting with guys, then she wants it.
- It's none of my business.
- I thought he was just joking around.
- She seemed into it.
- To show someone you like them, you have sex with them.
- It just went a little too far. It's not a big deal.

THE PERSON WHO COMMITS SEXUAL ASSAULT IS ALWAYS THE ONE WHO IS RESPONSIBLE. IT IS NEVER SOMEONE'S FAULT FOR BEING SEXUALLY ASSAULTED, NO MATTER WHAT.

Quiz: True or False

1. A person who says “no” really just wants you to try harder. True False
2. It is not okay to get someone drunk then try to have sex with them. True False
3. Consent is required for all sexual contact. True False
4. If the other person doesn’t say the word “no”, then that means they consented. True False
5. A 14-year-old and a 17-year-old are able to consent to sexual contact with each other. True False
6. You don’t need to worry about consent if you’ve made out with the person before. True False
7. If both people are the same age, they don’t have to worry about consent. True False
8. A person can mean “no” with an action like turning away. True False
9. Once you’re over 16, you can consent to sexual contact with anyone. True False
10. It is okay to assume the other person is consenting if that person isn’t fighting back. True False

Multiple Choice

- e. All of the above.

2. Which of the following people might be in a position of trust or authority over you?

- a. An employer
- b. A teacher
- c. A coach
- d. A family member
- e. All of the above

3. In which of following situations is consent possible? Assume that none of scenarios involve a position of trust or authority, relationship of dependence, or exploitation (as described on page 16).

- a. Both people are 14, but one person has been drinking.
- b. One person is 16 and the other is 13.
- c. One person is 12 and the other is 11.
- d. One person is 19 and the other is 16.

Sexual Violence

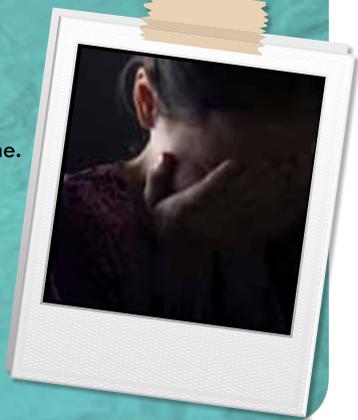

What is harmful sexual behaviour?

Harmful sexual behaviour ranges from: inappropriate sexual attention and comments to inappropriate and/or unwanted sexual touching and sexual touching causing injury.

- ✳ Slapping someone's butt.
- ✳ Snapping someone's bra.
- ✳ Spreading sexual rumours about someone.
- ✳ Randomly sending sexually graphic pictures, messages, and/or videos to someone.
- ✳ Taking sexual advantage of someone who is drunk or vulnerable.

Examples of harmful sexual behaviours:

- ✳ Shouting sexual comments or noises to someone.
- ✳ Making sexual comments about someone's body even if only to make your buddies laugh.

Possible impacts of sexual harm

This may include:

- ➔ Hard to trust people
- ➔ Feeling insecure
- ➔ Feeling scared
- ➔ Feeling angry
- ➔ Having trouble sleeping
- ➔ Feeling depressed and anxious
- ➔ Not feeling anything - numbness
- ➔ Regular headaches and/or stomach aches

Humiliated!

My friend was totally humiliated today. I feel really bad for her. We stopped by the drop-in centre by our school today and one of the youth leaders totally embarrassed her. I couldn't believe it! Everyone really likes him, but I think he is weird. Today, in front of everyone, he says, "Hey, Sarah, I hear you're a hockey puck." At first none of us understood what he meant. Sarah joked back with him and asked him what he was talking about. He looked at her and said, "The guys tell me you get passed around the hockey team." Everyone started laughing. Sarah's face turned white and she was really quiet for the rest of the afternoon. I can't believe he said that to her! It was so mean and sort of creepy! He is an adult...weird! Should I do something?

RESPONSE:

What happened to your friend wasn't okay. The behaviour of the youth leader is sexual harassment. Encourage your friend to tell a safe adult who can help her report what happened at the drop-in centre. The youth leader needs to be spoken to about his behaviour so he doesn't do it again to other youth. When something happens that feels embarrassing, it can be difficult to talk about it with an adult. Your friend may need you to help and be the one to talk to safe adult about it.

What prevents people from getting involved in helping people at parties?

- * They think other people are okay with it.
- * They think someone else will do something about it.
- * They are worried about causing trouble and being targeted.
- * They do not know what to do.

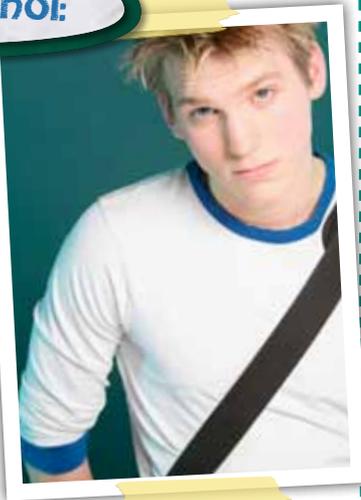

(Kaufman, 2012)

WHAT WOULD YOU DO TO HELP IF YOU SAW SOMETHING HAPPENING TO SOMEONE THAT WAS WRONG?
#DOTHERIGHTTHING

Some facts about alcohol:

- ➔ Alcohol affects your senses, thoughts, emotions, and behaviour. It impairs perception and judgment, making it harder to interpret other people's words and actions. This can increase the risk of being a victim or perpetrator of sexual assault.
- ➔ It takes about 30-60 minutes for an adult to absorb and eliminate one 'standard' drink.
 - ✱ A 1.5 ounce shot of 40% liquor, a standard glass of wine (5 ounces), a can of beer or a bottled/canned cooler that has 5% alcohol, all contain the same amount of alcohol and are considered a 'standard' drink.
- ➔ Caffeine and energy drinks won't sober you up. Caffeine/energy drinks are stimulants and alcohol is a depressant. The only thing that will make you sober is time.
- ➔ Adding alcohol to energy drinks may be dangerous. Fatigue is one of the ways the body tells someone they have had too much to drink. The stimulant effects from an energy drink can prevent a person from realizing how intoxicated they are.
- ➔ When people drink to the point of being unresponsive (pass out) or delirious, they are suffering from alcohol poisoning. Leaving them alone to "sleep it off" can have catastrophic consequences.

FYI: ALCOHOL AND DRUGS PLAY A SIGNIFICANT ROLE IN SEXUAL ASSAULTS AGAINST TEENS. (KAUFMAN, 2012)

The Law - It is a BIG Deal

The following briefly describes certain criminal offences to help give you a general understanding of the type of behaviour that could be illegal and result in charges by police. The descriptions are NOT comprehensive.

Unwanted or Illegal Sexual Contact

- * Sexual Assault is any sexual contact without lawful consent (e.g. kissing or touching without permission). It is even more serious if violence or a weapon is involved.
- * Aggravated Sexual Assault is a sexual assault where the person assaulted is seriously hurt or in danger of dying during or after the assault.
- * Sexual Interference is any touching of a person under 16* for a sexual purpose. It includes indirect touching (with an object, for example).
- * Invitation to Sexual Touching is encouraging a person under 16* to touch themselves or someone else for a sexual purpose (whether in person or online). It includes indirect touching (with an object, for example).

 For the offences of sexual interference and invitation to sexual touching, when both people are close enough in age AND have consented, charges may not be laid. Refer to the age of Sexual Consent table on page 15.*

 An example of a person in a position of trust or authority is a parent, guardian, teacher, coach, boss, etc. See page 16 for more information on dependency and exploitation.*

- * Sexual Exploitation is when a 16 or 17-year-old is touched by or encouraged to touch themselves or any other person for a sexual purpose by a person who is:
 - ➔ in a position of trust or authority over the young person
 - ➔ a person upon whom the 16 or 17 year old is dependent in some way
 - ➔ exploiting the young person in some way

- * Online Luring is a situation where one person (typically an adult but not always) communicates with a young person through technology (like texting, instant messaging, emailing, SMS, etc.) to make it easier to commit a specific sexual offence against that young person.

An example of a communication that could qualify as online luring is if the person asks, hints at or tries to convince the young person to create or send naked or semi-naked sexual pictures or videos.

With online luring, communications may not start out sexual. They may seem friendly or casual at first and then evolve into sexual subjects (e.g. the other person describing or sharing details of sexual acts or fantasies). The other person may also randomly send sexual pictures (of themselves or other people). Common questions asked where it is an adult luring a youth include: "Are you a virgin?", "What colour bra/underwear are you wearing?", "Are you okay with how old I am?".

- * Making Sexually Explicit Material Available to a Person under 18 is showing or sending material like pornography to a child to make it easier to commit a sexual offence against the child.
- * Agreeing or Arranging to Commit a Sexual Offence against a Person under 18 through technology (like texting, instant messaging, emailing, SMS, etc.) is also prohibited by law.
- * Homeowners and Building Managers cannot knowingly permit people under 18 to engage in illegal sexual activity within their home or building.
- * Flashing is where a person exposes their genitals to a person under 16 for sexual reasons.
- * Youth Prostitution-related Offences. It is an offence to exchange money or other things, like drugs or alcohol, for any type of sexual activity with a person under 18, or to live on the profits of a young person's prostitution. This includes parents and guardians. It is also an offence to direct, control or influence someone to engage in sexual activity in exchange for money or other things.

Acts That Make Others Feel Unsafe

- * Harassment is doing or saying something that makes someone else scared for themselves or someone else (e.g. making threats, stalking, repeatedly texting/emailing, constantly following).

- * Blackmail (extortion) is getting a person to do something (like pay money, go on webcam) by making threats or being violent (e.g. pushing, shoving, yelling).
- * Uttering Threats is threatening to hurt someone, damage their property or hurt an animal they own.
- * Intimidation is being violent or making threats of violence against a person, someone in the person's family or the person's property, in order to get a person to do something, or stop doing something.

Uncomfortable Situations

Why uncomfortable situations can be difficult

When you really like a person, it can feel uncomfortable telling her/him you aren't okay with something s/he wants to do. Some people feel uncomfortable being direct and saying "No!" or "Stop it!". Reasons can include:

- * It feels embarrassing.
- * It feels awkward.
- * The situation is confusing.
- * You don't want the person to be mad at you.
- * You aren't sure if you like the person that much.
- * You still want the person to like you.
- * You are worried about what the person might do to you.
- * You are worried about what the person might say to other people.
- * You enjoy some things but not everything and you don't know how to say that.

These are all understandable reasons why people may feel uncomfortable about being direct when it comes to sexual activity.

Tips for Dealing with Uncomfortable Situations:

- ➔ Be direct — say it like it is — In some situations, just saying "No" without arguing and/or explaining your reasons is the best response. For example, "I don't want to," "I'm not okay with this," or "Stop." Remember, no means no, and does not require an explanation.
- ➔ Be honest — Healthy relationships are respectful and honest. Being honest with yourself about what you want and don't want is important. For example, "I would rather take it slow" or "I am not comfortable with that."

- ➔ Be politely assertive — For example, “I am not ready to do that.”
- ➔ Use humour — Sometimes humour can turn the attention away from you and onto something else.
- ➔ Make an excuse for why you can't — Tell the person that you have something else you have to do. For example, “I can't stay – I have to go now.”
- ➔ Blame your parents — For example, “My parents are really strict – I have to be home right away.”
- ➔ Repeat yourself, if necessary — If the person is not listening and s/he is being pushy, then push back. Rather than giving in, repeat your answer again. You can take control back by being firm with your response. Don't change your mind because s/he is bugging you.
- ➔ Leave — Slip out of the situation with no explanation.

Getting Help

Helping Friends

People often confide in a close friend if they have something difficult to share. If a friend tells you something has happened to her/him that might be abuse or an assault:

- * Listen to your friend.
- * If your friend tells you to keep it a secret, tell your friend that this is too serious to handle without help from an adult.
- * Offer to go with your friend to tell an adult what happened.
- * If talking to an adult as the first step is too overwhelming for your friend, suggest writing a note or an email to their parent/or another safe adult explaining what's happening and asking for their help.
- * Tell your friend that what happened to them is not their fault.
- * Help your friend choose a supportive adult to tell.
- * Believe your friend.
- * It may also be helpful for your friend to practice what they are going to say before approaching a supportive adult. They may want to make notes about what they want to say and to discuss it with you. This may help your friend figure out how to approach a supportive safe adult.
- * If your friend is reluctant to tell an adult give them some time to think about it. If they do not change their mind then you need to get help from a supportive adult.

WHAT YOUR FRIEND HAS TOLD YOU IS PRIVATE. IT IS NOT FOR EVERYONE TO KNOW. THE INFORMATION SHOULD ONLY BE TOLD TO PEOPLE WHO CAN HELP.

There are options for where teens can go to get help. Some options include:

- * Family members can offer guidance, support and be an important advocate. While it may be difficult to tell parents or another safe adult about what happened, it is important. Remember, it's a parent's job to help keep you safe so while they may be upset, they should also be concerned about what has happened and help you figure out how to deal with it.
- * In some situations, there may be reasons why talking to a parent may not be an option. In those situations, speak with another safe adult (like a teacher, coach or relative) about what's happening.
- * If unable to identify a safe adult to talk to, contact Kids Help Phone (1-800-668-6868 or www.kidshelpphone.ca) or find a counsellor in your area (i.e. school guidance counsellor, drop-in community counselling). A counsellor may be able to help you make decisions about what to do next.
