Object of Interest Paragraph: SAMPLE

Name: _____ Ms Peach

Use the following outline to write a 5-part paragraph about an "object of interest"

Topic Sentence (this is the most important sentence, make it as interesting as possible) See tips in class	With 30, 000 other runners crossing the Finish Line on a sunny Fall day, feeling the weight of Berlin Marathon Finishers medal around my neck made all of the training worth it!
Support # 1 (describe the object in detail, be descriptive or explain where it came from)	The medal hangs on a ribbon of black, red and gold, symbolizing the German flag. On the front, there is the date of the marathon as well as an engraving of the Brandenburger Gate on it.
Support # 2 (why is this object important?)	This particular medal is significant to me because it was my honeymoon and my husband and I both ran it.
Support # 3 (another reason why is this object important or How do you show others that it is important?)	My Berlin Marathon Finishers medal reminds of what we can achieve with determination and discipline, even if feel that it is impossible.
Conclusion (This is your final thought for the reader, sum up the importance of what you've written. It should reflect your Topic Sentence)	Crossing the Finish Line with 30, 000 other runners from around the world makes this medal a shared achievement, and reminds of what we can all accomplish when we set our minds to it.

Object of Interest Paragraph

Name: _____

Use the following outline to write a 5-part paragraph about an "object of interest"

Topic Sentence (this is the most important sentence, make it as interesting as possible) See tips in class
Support # 1 (describe the object in detail, be descriptive or explain where it came from)
Support # 2 (why is this object important?)
Support # 3 (another reason why is this object important or How do you show others that it is important?)
Conclusion (This is your final thought for the reader, sum up the importance of what you've written. It should reflect your Topic Sentence)	